Scores of Richmond people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citisen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of ment can be had than guch endorsement?

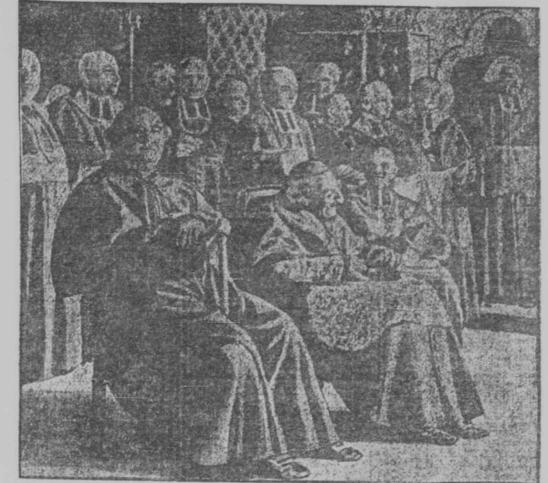

J. S. Good, retired farmer, of 917 West Main Street, says: "For twenty years I have had attacks of lameness and soreness across the small of my back; sometimes I was hardly able to get up or down from a chair, and when I stooped or made any gudden or awkward movement when the attacks were in the soute stage the sharp twinges across the loins fairly made me groan. The secretions from the kidneys being highly colored, irregular and too frequent in action, particularly so when I contracted a cold, compelled me maily to consult a physician. I also used more than one standard remedy and wore plasters, but I met with very indifferent success until I went to Owens & Minor's drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills. They proved to be just what I required. Undoubted results followed the treatment very promptly and when I had completed it the aching disappeared and the kidney secretions resumed their ordinary condition."

CARLTON MeCARTHY, Mayor,

Former Governor Franklin B. Moses, of South Carolina, was found dead in bed at his lodging house at Winthrop Beach acting as houseman at the second station, had a merry chase of it tast night. He was called to Central School, where an entertainment that was in progress was nuch disturbed by a gang of small boys "raising Cain" flust outside the door. The new man, parbed in a heavy overooat, soon appeared upon the secone, and sot in among the boys before they were aware of his presence. He immediately give chase, and the boys scattered in all directions. Several ladies and gentlemon were passing at the time, and they lost the pursuing policeman encouragement with their cries of "Catch 'em, catch 'em!" But the overcoat was in the way, and, putting and blowing with the exertion of his long, stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the bears of the secretion of his long, stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the place of the secretion of his long, stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the bears of the secretion of his long, stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the bears of the secretion of his long, stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the bears of the secretion of the long, stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the bears of the secretion of the song stern chase, the plucky cop had to give up, and the secretic secretary he was, deputed for the secretic decretions.

The death of Franklin J. Moses closes a spectacular career. Sixty-three years as to he was born to South Carolina of a good Southern family. When barely twenty years eld Governor Pickens, whose private secretary he was, deputed him to hoist the Palmetto flag fiver the ruins of Fort Sumpter. Moses served through the war with the Confederate Army, but when hostilities was over, he was one of the first to take adayantage of the opportunities offered by reconof the opportunities offered by recon-struction and the negro vote. He became a member of the State Legislature, then Speaker of the House, and in 1879 Gov.

The assertion is freely made that he evied toil on every measure, and gave way pardons like holiday baubles. When and the civil authorities found them-solves powerless.

After his term expired his descent was rapid. He fulled to secure re-election, and, cast off by his family, he went North, where he supported himself by various shifts, one being the publication of a small newspaper. In 1888 he shiehed a sentence of thre eyears in the Massa-chusetts State prison.

LONSTORF CASE HAS BEEN DROPPED

MILWAUKEE, WIS, Pocember 11.— The famous Lensterf conspiracy case, in which John Bandall, guardian for Mrs. Samma Lountorf, seeks to recover $770,-000 damages from Mrs. Margaretha Lonstorf and others for alloged alternation of her husband's affections, has been dropped from the calendar of the Circuit Court and the indications point to the settlement of the case out of court. the settlement of the case out of court.

Mrs. Emma Lonstorf is the wife of Otto Lonstorf, a son of Mrs. Margaretha Lonstorf. The couple were married several yours ago, but after they had lived together a short time, it is alleged, Otto deserted his wife at the instigation of the defendants. Following the alleged deserted his wife st the instigation of the action the young wife became insans and was a county charge for some years. The trial was twice interrupted, once owing to the chief defendant falling on an loy sidewalk and fracturing an arm,
